

DETERRA DRUG DEACTIVATION

In collaboration with Inspira Health Network, the GRASP Coalition is distributing innovative drug deactivation pouches for in home Rx disposal, keeping medications off the streets and out of our waterways. It is as simple as “Just add water.” Get your kit today!

Proven Mechanism of Action

99% success in deactivating drugs^{1,2,3}

- Narcotics
- Antibiotics
- Transdermal patches

Proprietary activated carbon renders drugs ineffective for misuse⁴

Environmental Responsibility

Uses biodegradable packaging⁵

Renders chemical compounds safe for landfills⁶

Prevents the use of harmful incineration^{7,8,9}

Reduces watershed contamination¹⁰

Social Responsibility

Closes the product lifecycle for pharmaceuticals

Reduces misuse-related medical emergencies

Demonstrates commitment to personal and public health

Cost-Effective & Easy to Use

Cost-effective abuse deterrent technology

Simple 3-step process promotes utilization

Works for pills, liquids and patches in home, clinical and public settings

1. National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) Efficacy Report. Ref. No. N44DA-14-4420
 2. Data on file.
 3. American Association of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Presented 2012, Mercer University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences.
 4. Ref MSDS No 117. From manufacturer Cabot Noritz Americas Inc.
 5. Package made from Omnidegradable® materials.

6. Environmental TCLIP Extraction Evaluation December 10, 2013.
 7. EnvSci Comparison Article May 2012.
 8. Trash Beats Take Back. Univ Mich Press Release May 16, 2012.
 9. United States Environmental Protection Agency. Taking Toxics Out of the Air. August 200EPA-452/K-00-002.
 10. Deactivation of Unused Drugs Federal Guidelines Research October 8, 2012.

For more information about Deterra Products, or to request an order contact:

candice@southwestcouncil.org

(856) 494-4950

www.southwestcouncil.org